

Personal & Professional Ethics

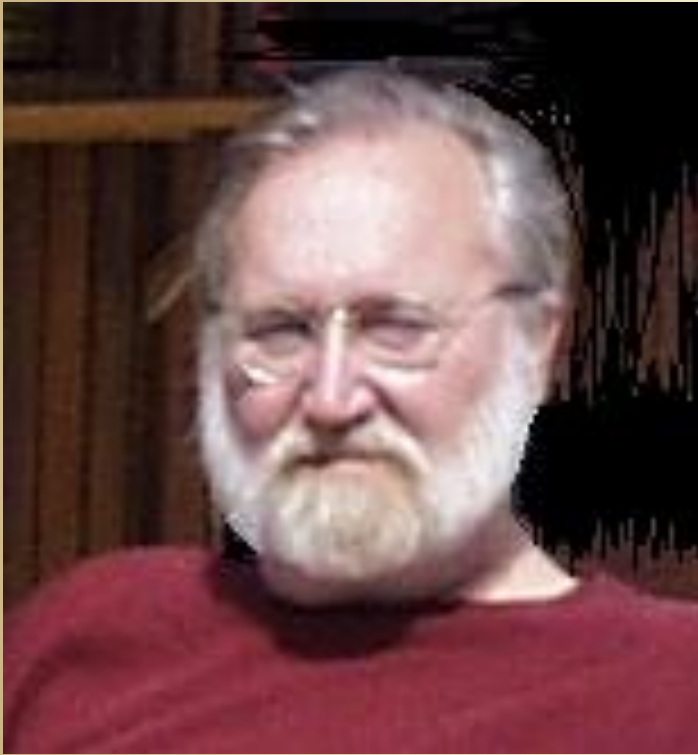

HUB646

Overview

Last Updated 5/9/2012

Edward Pierce, LCSW

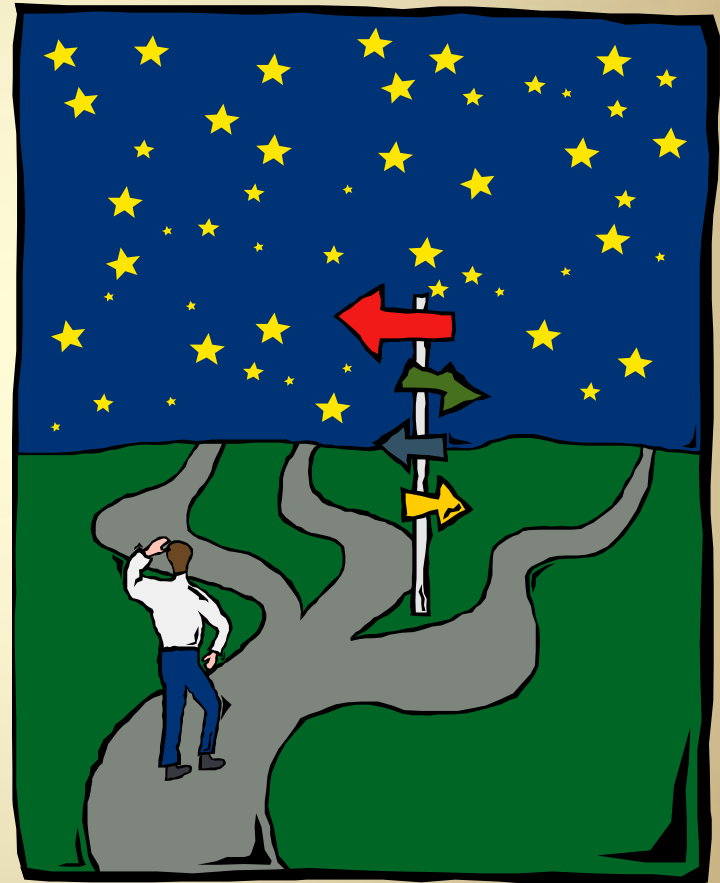

About the instructor

- Taught at National and SDSU for over 10 years at each University
- Clinical Consultant for private agencies
- MSW, LCSW
- Have taught other ethics courses
- See my website at <http://www.edwardpierce.net> for more about me.

About you

- Name
- Have you taken an online course before?
- If so, what did you like or dislike about it?

Course Structure

- This may at first look like a philosophy course
- It is broader in scope than a typical professional ethics course
- It has a good deal of writing
 - APA Style Format is important
- It has quizzes, which are primarily from the text
- In my experience, it's important not to miss one or more elements
 - A zero reduces your grade
- Future Classlive classes

APA Guide, 6th Edition

- National University now requires APA version 6.
- You may not have this book, and you may not need it.
- APA format is required for the paper in this class.
- You can find any information on APA Style you will likely need for this course on the web at <http://flash1r.apa.org/apastyle/basics/index.htm>
- Other material is available on my website and in course documents.
- I have the book, so you can always contact me via e-mail if you have a question

Thoughts about Ethics

- What is important to learn?
- Can this subject be taught?